

GOD NEVER FAILS!

How can you say that you love Jesus Christ when you hate your brother? Did you know that there are many people of color who have bought into the trick of the enemy to undermine God's work in fulfilling the prophecy of Dr. Martin Luther King? In his speech, "I Have A Dream," there was great prophecy that this world would change. Knowing what you know about slavery and how black people have suffered for decades (even now), how could a person of color be blindsided by satan's evil tactics? Better yet, how could a woman be blindsided by satan's evil tactics? Women have endured double discrimination since the beginning of time, but women are very strong individuals who have a unique design. Why? God made us that way. God never fails.

Have you ever walked into a room and felt as if people hated you because you are light skinned, dark skinned, pretty, fair, or even unattractive? Webster's dictionary would call that "insecurity." The Word of God calls it, "judging." When we judge people that we do not know, it is called "sin." When we judge people for any reason, it is called "sin." Why... because there is only ONE JUDGE. How can you know what is on the inside of a person when you can only see the outside appearance? How can you write someone off because of twisted stories and unsupported facts? How can you judge someone because they have a strange name or because they may not look or act like you?

Everyone has a right to their own OPINION, but let your opinion be based on fact and not by trickery and self-serving reasons. Black people will never rise above anything, if we cannot rise together. Black and white people will never walk in harmony if we do not know who we are in Christ Jesus. Nothing is more frustrating than to hear someone say "I DON'T SEE COLOR" when they are looking through the eyes of judgment at that very moment. Some say that equality will never happen among the races because the white man will always be seen as smarter than the black man or any other race. If you are a person of color, how does it make you feel to hear something like that when you have attended school and received a formal education just like the white man? How demeaning is it to know that you deserve to be treated with the same respect or even greater respect than the white man, but you are not because of your skin color? How does it feel to hear someone (especially of your own race) partake of stereotyping what you might be capable of because of your skin color?

I am a black woman and I am proud to be a black woman. I am judged every day of my life – not just because I am black, but because I have been chosen by God to do miraculous things in His Name. The enemy does not like me. He wants me to fail. Here is my point... I have no great significance. I am not a well-known politician or a megastar like Oprah Winfrey. If the enemy wants me to fail because He doesn't want God's work to be done, what more do you expect from him when someone of intelligence, power, and influence has the means to help change the world? Don't you think the enemy will use whatever means necessary to taint your mind to keep you on his side?

The Word of God tells us in the book of Romans Chapter 12:2: "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God."

Have you ever once thought about God's will for the people of the United States? Has God ever failed you?
